THE PRINCIPLES and PRACTICE of ENGINEERING and other Surveying, by CHARLES BOURN, M. Inst. C. E.

OPINIONS of the PRESS.

"This is a truly useful book; in the second part of it we have good and sound practical instruction on engineering and other surveying. . . . We have no hesitation in saying that this work will be a complete guide in the hands of the student."—The Builder.

"His practice in field work and engineering surveying generally is, of itself a volume of instruction to the young practitioner, and without entering into abstruse formulas and mathematical calculations as to make the work passing, it contains all that is required to render it not only a source of instruction, but also a most excellent work of reference."—Mining Journal.
 London: JOHN OLLIVIER, 59, Pall Mall.

PATENT OFFICE, 5, CHANCERY-LANE, NEAR FLEET-STREET.

INVENTORS requiring protection by LETTERS PATENT should apply direct to the PATENT OFFICE, as above, where Patents can be speedily procured for the United Kingdom, &c.; and by which a great saving of expense will be effected. CAVEATS are entered at this office, fee 1s. DESIGNS of all kinds are REGISTERED. Apply at the PATENT OFFICE, 5, Chancery-lane, near Fleet-street.

FIRE PROTECTIVE and GENERAL BUILDINGS IMPROVEMENT COMPANY (Provisionally Registered), for the Preservation of Life and Property from Fire, and Security from Robbery.

In consequence of the continual applications from Builders and others for Licenses to use the Company's Patents, the Committee hereby give notice, that so soon as the complete registration of the Deed of Settlement is effected, the List of Charges will be duly announced, and the Directors will be ready to grant licenses. Agents will be required in every principal town throughout the kingdom: surveyors or builders will be preferred, to whom a liberal commission will be allowed. Full particulars may be known by applying at the Office, No. 9, Lincoln's Inn Fields, where models and plans may be inspected.—By order, W. F. BRAY, Secretary.

WILSON'S PATENT VENTILATING SPIRAL CHIMNEY POT, for the cure of smoky chimneys (manufactured by J. PORTER), is the ONLY article for the purpose which assists the draft of the chimney by an external propelling power. Upwards of fifty have been recently fixed on the chimneys of Buckingham Palace, and several on Windsor Castle, with great success. This Chimney-pot is not only the best and most efficient ever invented for the purpose named, but stands unrivalled in its ornamental appearance. The public may be supplied with the above useful article by any of the respectable ironmongers, or at the sole manufactory, Southwark-bridge Iron Working Works.

TO BUILDERS—KENSINGTON PARK, NOTTING HILL.

TO BE LET, several plots of BUILDING GROUND, beautifully situated; roads and sewers made, and gardens laid out; decidedly the best situation round London. Bricks can be had on the ground, if approved, and other assistance if required. For further particulars apply to Mr. W. REYNOLDS, Estate Office, Clearedon-terrace.

TO BUILDERS, CABINET-MAKERS, AND UPHOLSTERERS.

TO BE DISPOSED OF, by PRIVATE CONTRACT, the STOCK in TRADE and GOOD WILL of an old-established BUILDING CABINET-Manufactory and Upholstery Business, which has for many years past been carried on in a town in the western part of Dorsetshire. The valuable and commodious premises where the business has been conducted, consisting of an excellent dwelling-house, with extensive workshops, storehouses, and offices, may be purchased with the stock, or taken on lease, for a term of years, at the option of the purchaser.—Further particulars may be obtained on application to Mr. P. COX, solicitor, Beaminster, Dorset.

SPACIOUS BUILDING GROUND, in the heart of the City, to be LET on a BUILDING LEASE.—The site comprises Old Foundry's Hall, Lombury (extending from east to west seventy feet and from north to south thirty feet), and a further space in connection with it suitable for purposes of an additional entrance to the Premises. Persons willing to tender for these Premises on a Building Lease are hereby informed that a Committee will meet here on Thursday, the 16th of October next, at one o'clock precisely, to take such Tenders into consideration.—Particulars may be obtained by applying at Foundry's Hall, or to J. B. GARDINER, Esq., Architect, 4, Bank Chambers, Lombury, where a Plan of the Premises may be seen. By Order, J. GRAY, Junr., Clerk. Foundry's Hall, 16th September, 1845.

NEW STREET FROM FARRINGTON STREET TO CLERKENWELL GREEN.

GROUND to LET on BUILDING LEASES.—The Clerkenwell Improvement Commissioners propose to let for the purpose of building Fourteen Acres or Lots of Ground, situated on both sides of a New Street to be called "Victoria-street," leading northwards from Farringdon-street to Clerkenwell, and to the proposed Station of the London and York Railway; unto parties tendering the highest rents for the same above a minimum reserved rent, under certain conditions. Printed particulars of which, and also the Ground Plan of the said Allotments, and the Plan and Elevation of the proposed Buildings thereon, may be seen, on applying at the office of Mr. R. C. CARPENTER, Surveyor to the Commissioners, No. 99, Guildford-street, Russell-square.

WILLIAM BUCHHELL, Clerk to the Commissioners. N.B.—Persons desirous of taking one or more Lots of Ground, are to make Proposals under Sealed Covers, indorsed "Tender for Ground, Victoria-street," and addressed to the Clerkenwell Improvement Commissioners, at their office, No. 21, Red Lion-square, where printed Forms of the Conditions of the Contract may be had, by or before Twelve o'clock on Monday, the 20th day of October next.

PAYNE'S PATENT PROCESS FOR THE PRESERVATION AND IMPROVEMENT OF TIMBER, &c.

PAYNE and LODGE beg to invite the attention of Engineers, Railway Companies, Architects, and others to the above process, and to state that they are prepared to erect the necessary apparatus in any part of the United Kingdom where the quantity is sufficiently large to cover the outlay of its removal.

Further particulars can be obtained at Whitehall Wharf Cannon-row, Westminster, or at their other stations, Fleetwood-on-Wyre, Lancashire; Wisbech, Cambridgeshire; Union-Wharf, Southampton; and Guildford, Surrey.

TO CONTRACTORS, RAILWAY DIRECTORS, ARCHITECTS, SURVEYORS, &c.

HUNT'S IMPROVED PATENT URINAL, for Railway Stations, Hospitals, Public Offices, &c., wholly free from metal, and thereby any deposit of ammonia is wholly prevented, and consequent tainting of the atmosphere. It is more slightly and much more economical than any article yet introduced for its intended purpose. References given to public officers, where it may be seen fixed. "It is admirably adapted for its purpose, and cannot fail to be extensively adopted in railway stations and other places." Water is admitted through small holes all round the rim, whereby it is cleansed. It is superior to any thing of the kind yet seen, and deserves to be generally known."—The Builder.

WRITING and BOOK-KEEPING.

MR. FOSTER, author of "Prize Essay on the best Method of teaching Penmanship;" "Pencilled Copy-books;" "Double Entry Elucidated;" and other commercial works,—continues to give lessons in WRITING and BOOK-KEEPING, at 161, Strand, adjoining King's College; where young gentlemen are prepared for the counting-house or government situations in a superior and expeditious manner.

The notorious inefficiency of the school-acquired knowledge of Book-keeping is attributable solely to the mode in which the art is taught. Book-keeping has hitherto been treated as a mechanical process, depending for its results upon arbitrary rules;—principles of universal application are not only kept out of view, but the learner is prevented from making such discoveries as his natural resources would have led him to.

The limits of an advertisement preclude any discussion of the merits of this system. Its main features, however, are sufficiently marked; the first object being to develop the principles upon which every plan of accounts is based, and to substitute real for mechanical progress. The initiatory exercises are varied in form and substance, so as to involve the student in a train of investigation having for its object to test the accuracy of his attainments, and to fix the knowledge firmly in his mind. He is, in fact, compelled to think and cannot proceed unless he comprehends the means and the end—the process and the result—the whole and the parts.

The writer is aware of the distrust which prevails with regard to any thing new. Nothing is more common than the cry of "Improvement;" and pretensions greater than he can claim, are daily put forth by the promulgators of "short and easy methods," with no other view than to impose upon the credulity of the unenlightened. He, however, pledges himself to prove, to the satisfaction of every candid mind, that this process leads with certainty to a knowledge of Book-keeping, utterly unattainable by any other means. It abridges the period of study, removes every difficulty in auditing accounts, and imparts a power of investigation which neither Fraud nor Error can escape.

Prospectuses may be had of Messrs. SOUTER and LAW, 131, Fleet-street; to whom reference is made.
